

REMOTE WORK & RELOCATION

CANDIDATE PULSE

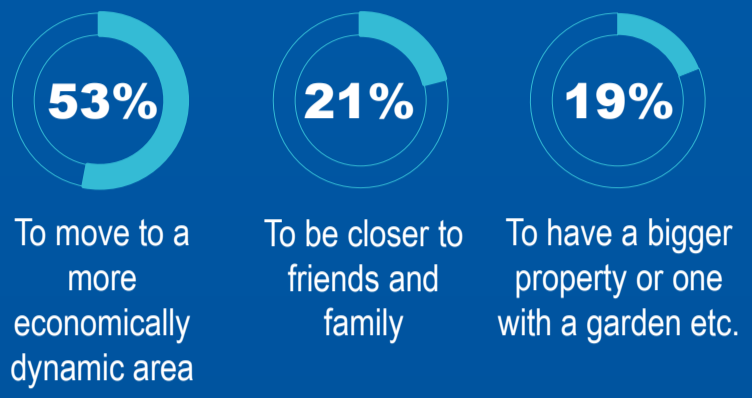

Michael Page surveyed over 200 job applicants across Switzerland to understand their feelings about remote work and relocation in 2021. If you want to talk to us about how this might affect your recruitment plans, contact us today to talk to a consultant.

53%

of job applicants consider relocating or have already relocated since the start of the crisis

MAIN REASONS FOR (CONSIDERING) A RELOCATION

THIS IS WHAT CANDIDATES WOULD ACCEPT TO DO WHEN RELOCATING

HOW JOB SEEKERS THINK A RELOCATION COULD IMPACT THEIR SALARIES

45%

of job seekers have seen an increase in the number of roles advertised with remote work

THE POTENTIAL FOR REMOTE WORK IMPACTS CANDIDATES' PREFERENCE FOR

DUE TO THE COVID CRISIS

22% of perm candidates consider an interim/contracting position

27% of perm candidates consider a temporary position

76% of temp or interim candidates consider a permanent position